

TRANSIT LAW CITED TO ESTIMATE BOARD

Commission Declines to Detail
Information of Use of Appropriation.

NEXT MOVE IS HYLAN'S

Request of Frances J. Sinnott for Appointment Is Rejected.

The Transit Commission gave notice yesterday to the Board of Estimate that, since the law does not require it, the commission will not comply with the board's request for detailed information regarding the purposes for which the commission desires to use the appropriation of $260,500 and $1,017,000 recently asked of the board. The commission pointed out that, while the old law required the former Public Service Commission to "state the purposes for which monies are required" and left to the discretion of the board the amount of money to be appropriated to the Transit Construction Commission, the new law requires no information from the Transit Commission but makes action mandatory upon the board, in the following language:

"Such appropriation shall be made forthwith upon presentation of such a resolution, without revision or reduction and without the imposition of any condition or limitation."

The law further provides that such an appropriation by the Board of Estimate is "a ministerial act."

As a matter of courtesy the Commission told the board that the $260,500 is the exact amount of the unexpended balance appropriated to the Transit Construction Commission, which the Transit Commission succeeds, and the $1,017,000, to be used for the last six months of this year, is identical with the sum granted the Transit Construction Commission for the first six months.

That position on the part of the commission leaves the next move up to Mayor Hylan and the Tammany majority of the Board of Estimate. The commission did not encourage Hylan or Tammany cooperation when it announced that it had decided to deny the request of Frances J. Sinnott, secretary of the former Transit Construction Commission, for transfer or appointment to another position of equal remuneration. Mr. Sinnott, in addition to being a strong Tammany adherent, is a son of James P. Sinnott, who was appointed by Mayor Hylan as Tax Commissioner, and brother of John J. Sinnott, secretary and son-in-law of the Mayor.

Daniel L. Ryan, also a Tammany man, formerly Deputy Transit Construction Commissioner, who lost out when the old commission was abolished, was given a job yesterday by Comptroller Charles L. Craig as head of the pension division of the Finance Department.

TUB ALUMNI REVIVE OLD ASSEMBLY DAYS

Stage Baroque Session With Original Characters.

Many of the men who made "The Tub" a top liner among Albany immortals turned back the hands of the clock twenty-five years or so last night and reviewed their frivolous, precocious youth.

The Tub Alumni Association mustered at a dinner given at the Machinery Club, and to make all the old times feel at home, they staged a turbulent baroque session of the Assembly much as those state-like disturbances used to be done in the day when Roosevelt, Odell or Hughes sat in the Governor's chair.

It looked almost like the real thing. There was Speaker Hamilton Fish in the chair, Col. Archie E. Baxter gracing his old office as clerk of the House and Lafayette B. Gleason on his perennial job as assistant clerk. There was "Billy" Loeb, content to forget later honors and to fill for the night the post of official stenographer. And there, too, noting as House leaders, were James M. E. O'Grady of Rochester, Judge Thomas H. Donnelly and John B. Stanchfield, who had left the Stillman case floundering rudely long enough to join the boys.

Of course, Garry Benson was there, too, waving his mace as of old in the role of Sergeant-at-Arms. Garry, as all know who are to the manner born, was the proprietor of the original "Tub," where Albany correspondents of the metropolitan newspapers and others of the elect used to foregather—and occasionally sleep.

Ex-Gov. Glynn came down from Albany and so did William Barnes, Jr., both of whom gave a convincing imitation of Assemblymen watching the interests of their constituents. Others who did their best to impersonate Albany statesmen were ex-Gov. Whitman, "Circle George" Aldrich, late of Rochester but now doing business in the New York Custom House; Travis H. Whitner, William Ellis and Lewis R. Stegman.

PAYS $25 FINE FOR STEALING B. R. T. NICKEL

Ticket Chopper Said to Have Taken Many Coins.

Mandel Meyer of 291 Oakland street, Brooklyn, ticket chopper for the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company, whose job has been to guard a coin box in the Macy avenue subway station and watch persons drop nickels in, pleaded guilty in Special Sessions, Brooklyn, yesterday to stealing a nickel from the B. R. T. and was fined $25.

Police said Meyer, instead of permitting all of the coins to drop into the box, held out his hand and caught some. He was alleged to have withheld several hundred dollars in the last few weeks, but the charge against him was made because of one nickel a passenger saw him take.

BURGLAR GETS 19 YEARS.

Joseph Schaeffer Pleads Guilty as Second Offender.

Judge Humphrey in the Queens County Court yesterday sentenced Joseph Schaeffer, 42 years old, of 1450 Bushwick avenue, Brooklyn, to Sing Sing for fifteen years after he had pleaded guilty to grand larceny and burglary as a second offender. Schaeffer admitted thirty burglaries during one year in the Rockaway, Jamaica and Richmond Hill sections. He was caught when a woman pawned a watch he had given her. Detectives found Schaeffer's apartment, in which was the property of many other persons.

CAN ABUSE TELEPHONE OPERATOR—JUST ONCE

Missouri State Board Fixes
Such a Limit.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 26.—Telephone subscribers have a right to use abusive language at least once to telephone operators when connections are not satisfactory. The State Public Service Commission so ruled today in ordering the Carlow Telephone Company to restore service to George H. Oxford, Davison county farmer. Oxford's telephone had been removed following an altercation with a young man in charge of the exchange at Carlow.

In making the ruling the commission stated that a single instance of use of abusive language was not grounds for discontinuance of service.

GAMBLING STUDENTS GET OFF WITH LECTURE

Course of Crap Shooting Interrupted by Magistrate.

The high cost of shooting craps is one of the reasons for high taxes in the opinion of Magistrate John E. McGeehan. He suspended sentence on two students of the High School of Commerce, Morris Hochhauser, 39 Chester avenue, Brooklyn, and William Lubin, 427 East Sixty-fourth street, found guilty of engaging in this pastime. The Magistrate, in spite of his leniency, did not like the manner displayed by the boys in court and expressed surprise that they should take their arrest so coolly.

He told them that they were starting their commercial careers wrongly and that when he was a schoolboy if he had been caught shooting craps he would not have been able to stop for a week. "The trouble is that too frequently people are trying to support a course in crap shooting along with their other activities, and that raises the price of things all around," he said.

F. J. BARRETT WINS HIS SECOND DIVORCE

Undeclared Action Names Edward W. Allen as Co-respondent.

Dr. Frederick J. Barrett of 181 East Seventy-fourth street, who during the war was a colonel in the medical corps in command at Camp Hancock Base Hospital and chief of the section of internal medicine, Surgeon-General's office won yesterday for the second time divorce proceedings against Mrs. Marian Barrett, now in California.

Supreme Court Justice Finch granted him an interlocutory decree in an undeclared action. He brought his first action in 1918 and a referee decided in his favor, but before the decision was confirmed by the court he agreed to forgive his wife. The correspondent in the second action was Edward W. Allen, branch office manager of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, 217 Broadway. In the first action Frank H. Barrett, cotton broker, of Augusta, Ga., was mentioned.

The marital difficulties of the Barretts attracted wide attention outside of the courtroom, in view of several kidnappings of their 13-year-old son, William Barrett, which Mrs. Barrett was alleged to have instigated after the father was awarded custody of the child. The first kidnapping occurred March 27, 1919, when the boy was walking along Broadway in company with Wallace G. Munson, headmaster of a New England school, where the father had placed the boy, who brought him to the city for the Easter vacation. Dr. Barrett and his agents pursued the suspects, tracing Mrs. Barrett and the boy to Canada, to an Arizona mining camp and to California, where in Hollywood Dr. Barrett began legal proceedings to prove his right to possession of the boy, not neglecting in the meantime to "kidnap" him back.

The second abduction occurred at Asheville, N. C., where Dr. Barrett was resting with the boy. In February, Mrs. Barrett was again suspected, and two prominent San Franciscans having been noticed at the resort, the child was recaptured en route to San Francisco.

The testimony by which Justice Finch awarded the decree was offered by John Richmond, resident of the New York Athletic Club, a friend of Mrs. Barrett. He told of interrupting demonstrations of affection between Mrs. Barrett and "Ed" Allen at the former Barrett home, 119 West Eighty-eighth street, when Dr. Barrett was in Europe and Mrs. Barrett was supposed to be at their summer home at Point of Woods, Mass. He said he had been asked by Dr. Barrett to look after his city home while he was abroad.

LAW PROTECTS MILK BOTTLES.

The Board of Health announced yesterday an amendment to the sanitary code making it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of $500 or a year in prison, to place empty bottles, cans or other receptacles for holding milk in or on any street, park or open space, or the placing of any such receptacle in garbage cans or other places used for the storage of offensive materials. The Health Commissioner stated that the dealers favored the amendment and that it probably would be reflected in a reduction in the price of milk, since the dealers have complained of expense through loss of bottles.
